

Headline News

---

Cyber security must be top of the agenda for organisations

Royal Society report says public trust in digital services and the ability of the digital economy to continue to thrive could be at risk in the UK without a step change in cybersecurity

Lords Select Committee on Charities calls for evidence

The Lords Select Committee on Charities has formally launched its inquiry into the charitable sector

New Product & Technology

---

Virtualised services reach tipping point

Demand for virtualised applications, services and virtual network functions (VNFs) in the UK has tipped into the mainstream according to a new survey

Microsoft launches business video platform

Microsoft has launched Stream, a new business video service that could be useful for charities

New Campaigns

---

Health trust and charity combine to deliver app

New charity app uses data to take care to a new level

Insights

---

Charities urged to adopt mobile payments as usage rises

The amount of money donated to charity via premium rate phone services increased by 6% in the 2015-16 financial year

